THE REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION.

A National Convention of the Republican party will meet at Chicago, Wednesday, the 24 day of June next, for the nomination of candidates to be supported for President and Vice President at the next election.

Republicans, and all who will co-operate with them in supporting the nominee of the party, are invited to choose two delegates from each Congressional District, four at large from each State, two from each Territory, and two from the District of Columbia, to represent them in the Convention.

J. D. CAMERON, Chairman.
THOMAS B. KEOGH, Secretary.

Gonzales, the would-be assassin of King Alphonso, has been pronounced insane.

The only English newspaper in Constantinople has been suppressed by the Ottoman Government for being too free in its criticisms.

The Fusionists have not even a rump left. They never did have the Maine they claimed, and now they haven't even a rump for the tail of the party to hang to.

The Pennsylvania wool growers are making a move for holding an exposition in the permanent exhibition buildings at Philadelphia, and to invite displays from all over the world.

A plan is on foot to elect Davitt and Brennan, the Irish agitators, to seats in Parliament, to represent Mayo county.
Parnell and Dillon ought to hasten back home, for they may be missing like chances for glory.

The woman's temperance crusade has broken out at Albion town, and the saloons are being visited by the fair enthusiasts. They must read only annuals in that town, and then probably skipped one or two numbers, and thus got behind the times.

The Northwestern railroad company is planning for building at once a mammoth depot in Chicago, and the Council has passed the ordinance vacating land near the old site, the conditions being that the building shall be commenced within a year and completed within three years.
The improvement has long been needed.

No one can carry firearms in Chicago now without a written permit from the Mayor. A pistol will kill a man though just as quick without a permit as with one, and it seems very much like preventing dogs from going mad and biting, by making the owners pay a tax and have them wear a collar with the registry number on.

The Senate Committee on Census has apportioned the nominations for Supervisors, among the members according to locality. By this distribution the nominations for the Northwest fall into the hands of Senator Cameron, of Wisconsin, who is to report upon their qualifications, after inquiring into the fitness of the appointees.

There seems at last to be some hope of breaking up the Padrone business in New York. Yesterday an Italian was sentenced to five years imprisonment for inveigling seven boys from Italy, it being the first conviction under the new law. If that law can only be executed the hand organ and harp business will be broken up, and the munkies will not have to divide their collections with any master.

"Governor" Smith, of Maine, on hearing the last decision of the Supreme Court, delivered an informal farewell address to his friends, the pith of which was that he was done now with politics, and should in the future devote himself strictly to his business. It is a good time and a good place for him to get out of politics. He can do so with safety. A man who is at the bottom of the ladder can't fall by stepping off.

Political economists can now sleep nights, and not worry about any technical definitions of labor and capital, and their relation to each other. Dennis Kearney has defined capital as "a soulless cormorant with blood-red talons, tearing the heart of labor." As Dennis has been a capitalist himself ever since he owned two drays of his own, and has been an employer ever since he hired a man to drive one of it for him, he of course knows how it is himself. To strengthen his experience he is said to have taken in $70,000 by passing around the hat, besides having taken in hundreds of sand-lot hoodlums. Surely Dennis, the drayman, must know what capital is. Now if he could only find out what true labor means.

There seems no prospect for filling up the muddy chasm between Tilden and Kelly.
The challenge for another struggle for the Democratic leadership of New York has been given and accepted. The Tilden State Committee has met and chosen anti-Tammany Democrats to fill the vacancies caused by the Kelly sympathizers, who have absented themselves since the Syracuse convention. By this move Tilden evidently expects to have complete control of the State convention, and to have a lever on the National Convention. Tammany, however, will not "clow" at his motion, and will doubtless hold a convention of their own calling, in which case they will try to force their delegation into the National Convention, and the contest will reach and ripen there. The chasm seems yawning wider between the factions, but there is enough dirt in the party to fill up almost any sized gaps of inconsistencies, though this looks at present like a lasting one.

If there is one man in this entire country whose social privileges are exclusively restricted to himself and whose situation enables him to realize all the fallacies of solitude—that man is Smith, of Maine. A few months ago he imagined he was Governor of that commonwealth—took as strong an oath to discharge its duties faithfully as a legitimate Governor could have taken—had a full complement of State officers to back him and selected a dozen members of his staff to assist in managing the half dozen militia companies in the State. One thing only was lacking to make his authority complete—which was the united and unanimous opposition of the respectable portion of the press, pulpit, people, bar and bench of which his constituency was composed. Nearly every person in Maine scorned all allegiance to his administration. Having been rejected and set down upon by everybody, he is now hardly better than a homeless and homeless wanderer without sympathy and without friends. Even his noisy partisans in the Fusion Legislature are deserting him, and sneaking off to their proper places in the legal Legislature. If this alleged Governor Smith wants to spend the residue of his days in peace, and outgrow the odium which attaches to the name as represented by him, he will change it to the more complicated Smythe, go west, start anew, and grow up with the country.

AWFUL RUMOR.

Special to the Gazette.
ODESSA, Jan. 29.—It is rumored that a Russian transport with two thousand war office at St. Petersburg has no news of the disaster.

EARTHQUAKE.

The Island of Cuba Shaken Up by Earthquakes.
New York, Jan. 29.—Havana and the west coast of Cuba has been shaken up by an earthquake. San Cristobal, a place of 1,030 inhabitants, has been shattered and most of the houses wrecked. A primitive and cumbersome jail, filled with prisoners and their guards, is dismembered in every part. The presence of mind of the inmates was unique. The prisoners instantly leaped for liberty, and the guards as promptly interposed. One convict was shot dead after emerging through a crevice made by the earthquake, and bursting open an outer door. Three guards were wounded in the melee. Fourteen other inmates are in the hospital with injuries received from falling beams and masonry.

An American from Portland was crushed under a falling chimney.

THE FALLEN CHIEF.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—No legislative business whatever was done in the Senate, this day having been set apart for memorial addresses in honor of the deceased Zachariah Chandler. There was a large audience in attendance which, with bright-colored dresses, and other adornments of numerous ladies in the galleries, and the cheerful sunlight of this splendid day, gave the Senate an appearance quite reverse of funeral. Thirteen Senators were announced as being prepared to deliver addresses, namely Ferry, Anthony, Bayard, Hamlin, Blaine, Logan, Wallace, Hoar, Morrill, Carpenter, Blair, Cameron of Pennsylvania and Baldwin.
All but three of these took part in the services; but Carpenter was too ill to attend, and Messrs. Hoar and Wallace were engaged elsewhere. It will be observed that Mr. Bayard was the only Democrat who spoke in eulogy of Mr. Chandler. Mr.
Wallace was the other Democrat in the list.

In the House on receipt of a message from the Senate, transmitting the resolutions of respect, Mr. Newberry briefly sketched the early life of Mr. Chandler.
Mr. Williams, of Wisconsin, alluded to the late senator as a man of the people, a friend of the poor, who loved liberty, hated persecution, abhorred treason, and despised apostasy, and as a hero who, strong in body was equally strong in will.
Eulogies were also delivered by Messrs.
Hubben, Brewer, Robeson, Burrows, Hawley, Dannel, Stone, Keiser, Conger, Driggs, Craps, Barber, Willets, and Garfield.

END OF THE FARCE.

The Fusion Legislature Adjourns until the First Wednesday in August.

AUGUSTA, Jan. 29.—An adjourned meeting of the Union Hall Legislature was held this morning, but reporters were rigidly excluded, as well as all others not members. Two of their members, however, Messrs. Hill of Corinth, and Milliken of Barabara, acquiescing at once in the decision of the court, instead of attending at Union Hall, repaired to the State House, and took their seats with the legal Legislature. Not much except desultory discussion took place this morning, and an adjournment was held at 4 o'clock this afternoon, at which time the session was closed with closed doors. A large number of those present took part in the discussion of the situation, and the course to be pursued in view of the action of the Supreme Court leaving their legality, and explicitly recognizing the legality of the State House Legislature, the better informed, fair-minded, and leading members advocated giving up their organization and taking their seats (those of them elected thereto) in the Legislature, while the counted in members and the extreme left favored continuing their organization and adjourning to some fixed day, or to meet at the call of "Governor" Smith.
After much debate it was finally voted to adjourn until the first Wednesday in August next. It is believed that many who had concluded to give up the struggle voted in favor of the adjournment in the belief, which is the common one, that when they separated to-day the separation would be final.

THE NAVY.

Proposed Reorganization of the United States Navy.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—Representative Harris, of Massachusetts, in behalf of the House Naval Committee, to-day reported to the full committee a bill, which was unanimously adopted by the full committee, and will be presented to the House tomorrow, with the request that an early day be set for its consideration. It is intended as a forerunner of legislation looking to a complete reorganization of the navy. Representative Harris bill authorizes the Secretary of the Navy to cause to be made a thorough inspection of all vessels in the navy, and all stores and materials, and to sell such as are pronounced unworthy. The bill provides for the establishment of a fund to be known as the permanent construction fund of the navy, which shall comprise appropriations made hereafter from time to time by Congress, and proceeds arising from the sale of old, condemned vessels of the navy, and condemned materials, stores and supplies.

INTEROCEANIC CANAL.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—In his financial speech in the Senate Tuesday Mr. Bayard referred to the proposed interoceanic Canal as the most important matter pending before the American people, and commented in the same line of thought that was pursued in the resolutions offered on this subject by Senator Gordon at the commencement of the session. General Gordon remarked to-day that it was a very important question for Congress to decide whether this canal could be built unless the United States could have control of it so as to protect their own commercial advantages, and he expressed this in the resolutions referred to.

Hayt was to have made a statement to the sion to-day, in answer to the Fisk charges and in explanation of the evidence that that was to have closed the matter as far clined to proceed without the benefit of a legal adviser, so nothing has been done.

WE SHALL KNOW.

When the mists have rolled in splendor From the beauty of the hills,
And the sunbeams warm and tender, Falls in splendor on the hills, We may read love's shining letter In the rainbow of the spray; We shall know each other better
When the mists have cleared away,
Never more to walk alone,
In the dawn of the morning,
When the mists have cleared away.

If we err in human blindness,
And forget that we are dust;
If we miss the law of kindness When we struggle to be just, Snowy wings of peace shall cover All the pain that clouds our way, When the weary watch is over,
And the mists have cleared away,
We shall know as we are known,
Never more to walk alone,
In the dawn of the morning,
When the mists have cleared away.

When the mists have risen above us,
As our father knows his own,
And we tread our path as he,
We shall know as we are known,
Love beyond the orient meadows, Flows the golden fringe of day;
Heart to heart we hide the shadows, Till the mists have cleared away,
Never more to walk alone,
And the day of light is dawning,
And the mists have cleared away.

The Whitewater Postmastership.
To the Editor of the Sentinel.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—I have this morning seen the Sentinel of the 18th inst., containing a special dispatch from Whitewater in regard to a change of postmasters at that place, and your editorial comments thereon. Postoffice cases, like lawsuits, are probably best regarded in newspapers. Whatever responsibility attaches to my action in the above case, I assume, and do not desire to apologize for, but this "Whitewater" dispatch is so outrageously unfair, and your misrepresentation of the facts so manifest, that I trust you will allow me to correct them. The dispatch states that: "Congressman Williams caused the removal in direct violation of his written pledge of non-interference upon."

I do not know who may be the author of this dispatch, but my response is that he or any one else is at liberty to publish any such "written pledge" from me, or anything I have written or said that can be tortured into it. There can be no chance for perjury. I pronounce the statement a falsehood in warp and wool, and without the flimsiest of a fact to stand upon.

The plain facts are these: Mr. Cravath's term as postmaster at Whitewater was about to expire. On the 18th of December I received a petition from Mr. Cravath's reappointment signed by thirty-eight business men and prominent citizens of Whitewater. About a week later I received a petition asking for Mr. Mc-Graw's appointment, signed by eighty-four business men and citizens of equal prominence, five of whom, business men, stated on the face of the petition that they had signed the Cravath petition, but should not have done so had they known that the McGraw petition was to be circulated. I also received several letters from prominent citizens of Whitewater who signed neither petition, speaking kindly of Mr. Cravath but expressing the opinion that a change should be made.
Upon these papers I recommended Mr.
McGraw's appointment. I should perhaps add that the President sent Mr. McGraw's name to the Senate on the 3d of January, and that letters came in under date of the 8th and 9th from Mr. Cravath's friends protesting that the question be submitted to a popular vote. But it was then too late, had that been deemed advisable, after both sides had proceeded by petition and each had earnestly solicited me to "interfere." I repeat, rather by way of correction than complaint, for I will not stand upon the ground of Congress' relation to an ordinary postoffice case, so far as misrepresentation and abuse are concerned, was well expressed by the little boy whose mother said to him, "Frankie, the Lord will never forgive you for that," quickly replied: "Yes He will! Yes He will!
That's what He's for!" C. G. WILLIAMS.

istering it, and afterwards found it equally beneficial in other cases. He advised his brother physicians to use it in preference to anything else for kidney disorders.

and very rarely seen, should not be without interest. It is as everybody knows a contraction of centum, and it is so called because it is the hundredth part of a dollar. It was suggested by Robert Morris, the famous financier, to whom the struggling colonies were so much indebted for their independence, but got its name from Thomas Jefferson. The cent made its first appearance in New Haven, under act of Congress, in 1787, and the same year Massachusetts authorized coins of like value and tested them. It was not until 1792, when it was decorated with the head of Washington on one side and thirteen stars on the other. The French revolution created further, with such partiality for French coins that the Goddess of Liberty was substituted for the first President of the commonwealth, and an olive wreath for the chain of stars. The goddess was very French in semblance, having a long, propendent neck, with grandly flowing locks. She was succeeded in due time by a severer lady of freedom, having Grecian features and a fillet around her hair. Her coins have never been remarkable for the excellence of its dies. The figures on all of it are far from what they ought to be, and reflect very small credit on our artistic execution. The head on the present small cent, for instance, is not only clumsy, it is ambiguous. Very few persons know whether it was intended for the Goddess of Liberty or for George Washington. It might be either or both, and the cunning designer may purposely have so left it that we can have it, as becomes free citizens, exactly as we choose.—New York Times.

An Armenian Wife.

A gentleman on a visit to Armenia writes, the other day with the pastor to call upon a leading family. The master of the house showed every attention, and asked us to stay and eat supper with him. We told him that it would bring all his family together to eat with us we would stay. You must know that no husband in this country, unless he be a Protestant, ever eats with his wife. But our host saw the point in our request, and after a little good humored chat upon the subject, he agreed to our proposition. The food was brought in and set upon the table; the father and mother of our host entered the room, and in came his five fine-looking children. All gathered around the table, and we were asked to "sit up." No, we said, "your wife is not here. We want to see all your family," and we reminded him laughingly of his promise. Off he went, and we heard him in the next room coaxing her to come in just to please us. At last she complied, looking sheepish and scared. Never before had that woman been asked to eat with her husband. A blessing was asked, and all began to eat. But, three of the pastor had whispered to me that although the wife sat at the table she would not eat; so it proved. When we were urged to begin, we good naturedly replied that we were waiting to see Lucia eat first. Then there was more coaxing. I was stood firm and carried out our point. But a defeat was coming. Pressing on victoriously, we went a step further. Taking up a piece of sugar, the pastor asked the wife what it was. But in the presence of the mother-in-law the woman dared not utter a word. We treated, we scolded, we urged, but all in vain. Not one word could we extort from Lucia. The old mother-in-law sat, in a half warning, half apologetic tone, "see dare not speak."

A WORD TO THOSE WHO USE POROUS PLASTERS. It is a universally acknowledged fact that BENSON'S CAPSINE POROUS PLASTERS ARE SUPERIOR TO ALL OTHERS. The great demand for them has caused a number of unscrupulous parties to make and sell worthless imitations under the name of Capsicine or Capsicin. As the market is flooded with inferior plasters selling at any price it is important for the consumer to know which is the best. It is well known that some of the cheap plasters have been examined and found to contain injurious ingredients which make them dangerous to use, causing paralysis and other diseases. All genuine BENSON'S CAPSINE PLASTERS have the word CAPSINE cut in them. SEABURY & JOHNSON, Pharmaceutical Chemists, New York. PRICE 25 CTS.

BRIEFINGS.

—How is your cold?

—Ex-Ald. Hutchinson is reported as on the sick list.

—Mrs. W. G. Wheelock is reported quite ill with pneumonia.

—Mrs. T. W. MacLean has gone to Aurora, Ind., to visit old home and friends.

—The case of Kinney vs. Allen still occupies the attention of the Circuit Court.

—The "Almost Persuaded" should go to the First Methodist church to-night and hear what the preacher about them.

—Rev. Mr. Jones starts to-day for Prairie du Chien, where he is to deliver his lecture to-morrow night on "The Cost of an Idea."

—There is to be a leap year, party this evening given by Mrs. George F. Wentworth at Koshkonong, Smith & Tuckwood's band will furnish the music.

—George Marquette got insured in the Pioneer Benefit Association just in time. He draws out $20 to cover the time he was laid off duty by the assault made upon him in Beloit.

—The Milwaukee Presbytery, which was announced to meet this afternoon to consider the dissolution of the pastorate of Rev. J. W. Sanderson, is not to meet until a week from to-day.

—Among the legislative proceedings noted the fact that Senator Richardson presented a petition of Ward Witham and others asking for a law for the taxation of church property.

—At a meeting of the Lower City Band last evening it was decided to complete the negotiations which have been some time pending, by which the band is to purchase a Drum Major's full regulation uniform.

—The petition which has been in circulation here against the passage of a law providing capital punishment, has received about 130 signatures. Among the signers were sixteen lawyers, and two ministers. The petition will be forwarded to Madison soon.

—Ira Henry has turned up in a new phase. The State Journal in recording the doings of the Municipal Court at Madison says: "Ira Henry of Clinton, Rock county, was arraigned on a charge of bigamy. The examination of the case was postponed one week, and the prisoner held to bail."

—Fred Comstock, brother of the Sheriff, is to take the position of Turnkey at the jail, made vacant by the resignation of Mr. Ed. Tracey. Mr. Comstock is not without experience, having been acting as Deputy Sheriff for some months, and having learned the ways of the jail thoroughly. There's good blood in him, and there is no doubt he will fill the position admirably.

—A communication has been received from a citizen complaining of some salt barrels which were in front of a store, and in such a position that when he was walking along the sidewalk and trying to pass two ladies, he tumbled over them and injured his knee. We don't know what we can do about it, but probably the owners of the salt barrels could do something. Sidewalks ought not to be obstructed.

—The Pender House Glee Club is making extensive preparations for their concert and entertainment at Lippin's hall, Tuesday evening, February 10. Miss Lizette Battle is to assist in the management, and is to give some instrumental selections. Her reputation as a musician is so well established that it is almost needless to say that with her assistance a successful and worthy entertainment is guaranteed.

—Prof. Severance closed his first term of dancing school last evening, and it has proved so successful and enjoyable, that at the request of a large number of the members, he has decided to open another term next Wednesday evening. He is very popular with those who come under his instruction, and certainly does much with great success, but he merits it, and all are glad to see him win it.

—The Lake City Guards, of Madison, must have become very much exhausted on inauguration day, for they have been resting ever since until last Tuesday evening. The fact that they had a drill there, causes the State Journal to introduce a half-column thus: "The members of this organization have been taking a rest after the fatigues incident to inauguration day and last night held their first company drill since that time." The Janesville Guards seem to be made out of tougher sort of material, and they keep to work week after week, as do also the Rifles, who are showing commendable progress as the result of their drill.

—Mrs. Henry Sayers, of Chicago, is in the city, a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Gay Carter, having come hither to join in the marriage festivities yesterday. Mrs. Sayers at present occupies the position of President of the Orphans' Asylum in Chicago, and at the time of Grant's recent visit to the city, gave him a reception at that institution, and made an appropriate address, to which the General replied by thanking her as the first woman who had presided at a reception given him in his long journey.

—For nearly seven years, and during the war Mrs. Sayers was in charge of the Soldiers' Home in Chicago, and many will never forget the cordiality with which she ever greeted the boys in blue on their arrival, and the kindness with which she cared for them. She showed marked loyalty to the cause, and sacrificed for it both time and money. "The Loyal People of the Northwest," a book published soon after the war, contains a steel portrait of her and a lengthy biographical notice. She is indeed a noble woman, and merits all the praise she has received. Her husband is a wholesale tea merchant in Chicago, and both Mr. and Mrs. Sayers have many friends in this vicinity, as they resided in Johnstown about thirty years ago. Mr. Sayers being engaged in business there, and having for a time been Postmaster.

RECEIVED THEIR PARDONS.

The particulars of the Myers case are still fresh in the memory of the public. Myers himself was acquitted of the charge of rape, but was afterwards convicted of subornation of perjury, and is now serving his term of five years at Waupun. The two witnesses who testified falsely, Thomas Clemons and Frank Wagner, were arrested and pleaded guilty. Attorney O. H. Fether, of this city, presented their cases to the Governor, and showed up the extenuating circumstances, and as a result the twins have received their pardons, and are now free from the toils of the law.

HUNTING WOLVES.

A day or two ago Mr. T. W. Jones, entered the County Clerk's office with a wolf's skin, on which he claimed and obtained a bounty of $10. Mr. Jones' name appears quite often on the books, and he has captured more wolves in these parts than all the other hunters together. During the past year he has received from the State and county $305 in bounties. He does not shoot all his victims but traps many. His experienced eye tells him the moment his foot rests upon a wolf run, and he proceeds to set traps along the path, so that they will stumble in. He prefers not to use bait, for in that case the wolf noses about and with natural shrewdness avoids the steel jaws, but if placed in the runway, the wolf trots along and gets caught without warning. Sometimes, though, Mr. Jones shoots a wolf, and he is always on the lookout for them.

The County Clerk is very careful to whom he awards bounties. The law giving State bounties is not in force now, and Jefferson county has also done away with its county bounty, and perhaps others have done likewise. There is constant need to guard against paying bounties for "imported" wolves. The County Clerk now refuses to draw orders for bounties if the applicant is a stranger, unless proof is brought that the wolf was killed in this county. When a skin is brought in the County Clerk cuts off the ears and burns them up, so that there is no chance to present the same for another bounty. In fact every precaution is used to keep parties from drawing bounties fraudulently.

Not is this without cause. Some months ago a man presented some scalps claiming that he had killed the owners thereof in this county. An investigation was made, which showed that in all likelihood the wolves were slain, not only in another county, but in another State, and the bounty which amounted to about $100, was withheld for further proof in the applicant's favor, but no such proof has been brought forward, and the scalps are still in the charge of the Clerk, the person presenting them not seeming to care to press the claim further.

As for House, New York, best accommodations, reduced prices.

ANOTHER NEW BLOCK.

Mr. A. P. Bennett is contemplating soon making an important improvement of his property on the corner of West Milwaukee and River streets, where now stands Bennett's hardware store. Goggles jewelry store, and Hutson's confectionery store.

According to the present plans the wooden buildings are to be removed and a substantial brick building erected in their place, with a wide frontage on Milwaukee street, and a depth of one hundred and forty feet. It will probably be three stories high, and the stores on the first floor will be thrown into one, and it is understood that a very heavy dry goods firm propose to occupy it. The second floor will be rented for offices and the third perhaps be a hall for some society to use. Such seems to be the outline of the plan now talked of. Several parties have told Mr. Bennett that they would take certain portions of the building, if he would erect one, and he has about decided to do so, and is now looking over plans and figures with the view of proceeding at once with the enterprise. Such a block will make a marked improvement in that portion of the business center of the city, and will be hailed with delight by all who are interested in the city's prosperity.

CUPID'S CHIMES.

Yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock a happy wedding occurred in St. Patrick's church, Father Doyle officiating. The contracting parties were Mr. Edward D. Tracey, and Miss Nellie I. Bradley, daughter of William Bradley, Esq., of Fulton.

The many friends of both parties will unite in wishing them the happiest of lives and the brightest of futures.

Mr. Tracey has for several months past been Deputy Sheriff at the jail, and has filled the position acceptably to all, he being well fitted for it, having been for three years and a half connected with Pinkerton's detective agency, and having occupied other positions of trust. He has now resigned his position, and has concluded to make his home in Dakota, where he expects to engage in farming, at which he is no novice. Mr. Tracey was born in this county, and has spent most of his life here, and it will be with regret that friends part with him, but all rejoice that he has succeeded in gaining for himself so worthy a companion for life. He will make friends wherever he goes, and has enough experience and energy to gain prosperity in a new country.

RESTING EASY.

Mr. Robbins' condition has not changed materially. He is resting quite easily to-day, that is, not easily for a well man, but easily considering his terrible injuries. Every day now seems to add to his chances, but he is far from out of danger. Telephonic communication has been established between Mr. Robbins' rooms, Dr. Palmer's office and Prentice & Evenson's drug store.

MEETING AT THE MANSE.

The announcement that the members and friends of All Souls church were to gather at the residence of Rev. and Mrs. Jenk L. Jones last evening, called together about a hundred ladies and gentlemen, filling the parlors well. The evening was very enjoyably spent, there being an absence of formality, and the time being given to happy greetings and pleasant chatting. Miss Lillie De Long favored the company with readings, and rendered "Courtship of Shakespeare," and "How He Saved St. Michael's," showing much ability, and calling forth enthusiastic applause. The gathering was a happy one, and the hours sped lightly.

THE WEATHER.

REPORTED BY PRENTICE & EVENSON, DRUGGISTS.

The thermometer at 6 o'clock last evening stood at 14 degrees above zero; at 1 o'clock a. m. to-day at 8 degrees above; at 7 o'clock a. m. at 14 degrees above, and at 1 o'clock p. m. at 23 degrees above.

The indications to-day are for the late Cloudy. Snow in the afternoon, region, colder, and partly cloudy weather, northwest winds, shifting northeast, rising barometer, followed in the western portions by falling barometer.

Crooked "Haaretl."

ACCEPT a thousand thanks for that Golden Remedy. I suffered for many years with rheumatic pains in my limbs, my legs were drawn together, and people called me "crooked Haaretl." I used St. Jacob's Oil, and was cured, and now feel so well that I think I could dance as in my young days.

Swallowing

POISON!

Spirits of disgusting mucus from the nose or up the throat, Watery Eye Sniffles, Buzzing in the Ears, Deafness, Cracking sensations in the Head, Intermittent Pains over the Eyes, Furred Gums, Nasal Discharge, Scabs in the Nostrils, and Tickling in the Throat are

SIGNS OF CATARRH.

No other such loathsome, treacherous and undermining malady caries mankind. One-fifth of our children die of diseases generated by its infectious poison, and one-fourth of living men and women drag out miserable existences from the same cause. While asleep, the impurities in the nostrils are necessarily swallowed into the stomach, and inhaled into the lungs to poison every part of the system.

Dr. Wei De Meyer's Catarrh Cure absorbs the putrid virus and kills the seeds of poison in the farthest parts of the system. It will not only relieve, but certainly cure Catarrh at a single stage. It is the only remedy which, in our judgment, has ever yet really cured a case of Chronic Catarrh.

Dr. Wei De Meyer's Catarrh Cure is a new and most important medical discovery since vaccination. It is sold by all druggists, or delivered by D. B. Dewey & Co., 46 Dey St., N. Y., at $1.50 a package. Twelve six packages for $7.50. Dr. Wei De Meyer's Treatise is sent free to anybody.

head, liver, kidneys, bladder, womb, and blood affections of the urinary organs, gravel, sciatica, rheumatism, catarrh, asthma, bronchitis, dyspepsia, &c.

Dr. Price's reputation has been acquired by honest, honest dealing and years of successful practice.

My practice is not one of experiment, but founded on the laws of Nature, with years of experience and evidence to sustain it, does not tear down, make sick to make well; no harsh treatment, no trifling, no flattery. We know the cause and the remedy needed; no guess work, but knowledge gained of years of experience in the treatment of chronic diseases exclusively; no encouragement without a prospect. Candid in our opinions, reasonable in our charges, claim not to know everything, or cure everybody, but do lay claim to reason and common sense. We invite the sick, no matter what their ailment, to call and investigate before they abandon hope, make interrogations and decide for yourselves; it will cost nothing as consultation is free. Visit me regularly.
